Dedication

Mr. Trent Serini when we graduate from Onancock High, we shall carry in our hearts and minds the impression made upon us by a "big" man, in the highest sense of the word.

Your contribution of time and effort has gained you a warm place in the hearts of both the students and the faculty. If one man ever represented the spirit of Onancock, it would surely be you.

In recognition and appreciation of the great coaching job and the times you have brought our team to victory, we, the class of '66, dedicate this Trident to one who greatly deserves it.

These have been pleasant years, these years in which I have had the pleasure of knowing and working with you. I believe you face a future in a world of exciting change perhaps more so than at any time in our history. I envy you your youth.

May I wish for each of you pleasant life filled with happiness.

Earl G. Hoppes, Principal

I wish you all success and happiness in the future years. It has been a pleasure working with you this year.

Class History

As Seniors of 1966, we can no longer claim the shelter offered by these "Hallowed Halls of Ivy", but must face the uncertain future before us. With this in mind, let us recall some of the memories we hold of the four years we have spent together at Onancock High School.

In 1962, a group of Freshmen, perhaps more "frightened" than "foolish", entered through the doors of Onancock High School. Under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Chanley and Mr. Fitzgerald, we chose our class officers: Linda Bagwell, President; Pat Belote, Vice-President; Lila Jacob, Secretary; and Sammie Miles, Treasurer. We welcomed our new classmate, Judy Van Kleef from New Jersey. The girls joined F.H.A., and our S.C.A. representatives, Joanne, Nancy, and Donnie Ward, were appointed. Sammie was chosen cheerleader; Donnie Ward fought with the ranks of the mighty Devil football team while the other Freshmen boys threw their energies into J. V. sports. Three of our girls, Bonnie, JoAnne, and Sammie did us proud by making the varsity basketball team. In the spring, with the baseball and softball season on the way, Ned, E. T., Nancy, Bonnie, Linda Jean, Sammie, and Ann Brooks were chosen to hold down the bases. To close our Freshman year and to usher in summer, we decided to have one last gathering which took the form of a hayride to Silver Beach.

After a bountiful summer, we returned to these sacred halls as "silly" sophomores of '63-64. Mrs. Chanley and Mr. Carey supervised as we elected our class officers; Eve Russell, President; Lila Jacob, Vice-President; Roberta Hampton, Secretary; and Donnie Ward, Treasurer. Again, we had transfer from New Jersey, this being Bruce Adkins. For the first time in our lives, the Beta Club and Tri-Hi-Y opened their doors to us. Linda Bagwell joined the cheerleading squad, and in football, basketball, baseball, and track, the Sophomores made their presence known. To climax our Sophomore year, we held a dance at the American Legion Hall to raise money for the future, but first, and foremost, to have some fun.

Another summer passed all too quickly, and the "jolly" Juniors rocked the foundations with their greetings and laughter, much to the consternation of Mr. Hickman and Mrs. Richardson. But soon, we settled down and elected class officers: Roberta Hampton, President; Douglass Twyford, Vice-President; Linda Guy, Secretary; and Linda Lilliston, Treasurer. This year we welcomed a Southerner by the name of Carson Diggs. Football season rolled around, and while the Junior boys were playing a big part on the team, Junior girls applied themselves to running the concession stand; with the exception of the cheerleaders, which now included Lila Jacob and Ann Belote. Immediately after the excitement of ordering class rings died down, we anxiously watched the mail for their arrival. Meanwhile, Mr. Hickman and Mrs. Richardson put their time and effort into directing the Junior Play. "The Stuck Pot", as it was called, proved to be the most enjoyable and humorous production that the stage of Onancock High had seen in many years. On the enchanted evening of April 22, we celebrated our "ROMAN HOLIDAY", which won acclaim as the most sensational formal ever. The exquisite decorations pictured the grandeur of Roman times, while the Sherwoods, from Hampden Sydney College, provided the music to make the night a memorable one. The Beta Convention was attended by several Juniors. We were very proud of Linda Bagwell, our representative to M. G. A., when she was elected Speaker Pro Tem of the House. Some of us worked very hard on the Newspaper staff with much help from Becky Robbins, our Junior Editor. Most of us finished the year by taking College Boards, then we all dedicated our time to enjoying the summer.

At long last, our Senior year arrived, once again under Mr. Hickman and Mrs. Richardson. We elected class officers: Bruce Adkins, President; Barbara Melson, Vice-President; Linda Bagwell, Secretary; and Linda Lilliston, Treasurer. The oh, so sophisticated Seniors blithely decided on invitations and name cards. Everyone concerned with varsity sports looked forward to fulfilling their last year on the teams, hoping that it would be the best year yet. At the Thanksgiving football game, John R. and Linda Bagwell were crowned the reigning royalty of Onancock High School. Several Seniors attended the Newspaper Convention in Richmond; later Beta members found themselves traveling all the way to Roanoke for the Beta Convention. Meanwhile, the Trident staff, prompted by Sammie and Roberta, settled down to a year of hard work. We sold stationery and candy to raise money for our caps and gowns. College acceptances began to arrive, reminding us of graduation and the future.

As we, the Seniors of '66, turn to walk that uncharted path to that vague "something" we call the future, we realize that we are surrendering the guidance of our parents and teachers whose concern we deeply appreciate. Now we can depart with high hopes for the future, leaving behind only the echoes of our shouts, our laughter, and our tears.

The past is a memory, the future a dream.
We alone hold the key to make that dream come true.

Carol Moore,
Historian

Senior Calendar

September--But I don't feel like a Mighty Senior. Do those underclassmen really look up to us? Message of the Month: The following people have not yet had their Senior pictures taken.

October--Campaign for school spirit in full swing. Establishment of our Senior privileges (like front of auditorium). Saying of the Month: And they expect us to understand all this!

November--Senior pictures arrive--ugh!! Work on the annual progressed nicely??? Football ended on a happy note for us, and we began our last season of basketball. Headline of the Month: The Most Beautiful Float on the Shore.

December--College Boards, applications, achievement tests, and FINALLY, Christmas vacation. Joke of the Month: Hey Juniors! Rings are here!

January--Yech! Back to school and then exams (a wirty dord). Exclamation of the Month: I thought we were supposed to live it up our Senior year.

February--Lull in the year with not much to do but study, although we had the great excitement of the boys' basketball tournament. Song of the Month: "Please Mr. Postman, look and see, is there a college acceptance for me?"

March--Girls basketball tournaments was one of the main events, along with the Beta members' excitement over their coming convention. School of the Month: Mayberry Union High--M.U.H.

April--Spring fever hit for the twelfth year in a row and the baseball, softball and track teams took form. Spring vacation. Thought of the Month: 'wonder if the Juniors will come through'.

May--Year coasts to an end at an amazing rate. Invitations, name cards, caps & gowns arrived and nostalgia struck as we realized the year was almost over. Book of the Month: the colossal, magnificent, great, attractive----TRIDENT!!

June--a graduation dilemma; location vs weather. Tears of joy and sadness, shouts of "We're actually finished!!" Song of the Month: "Pomp and Circumstance".

Class Prophecy

June 1976

Dear Mrs. Richardson and Mr. Hickman,

While I was working in Goldilocks' Hair-Dying Clinic, which I own, one of my past classmates, Kevin Daley, paid me an unusual visit. Kevin is a salesman for the Bourbon Company in Frankfort, Kentucky, and he came to me with a new formula to add to hair dye, a synthetic liquor that will help absorption in hair rinses. Since Kevin and I hadn't seen each other in ten years, we couldn't help but discuss our past classmates at Onancock High School.

DOUG TWYFORD has purchased Cedar Island and is going to open it as a "sportsman's paradise."

KERRY ANDERSON and LILA JACOB, whose hot-rodding abilities were greatly known, are competing to win the Indianapolis 500 this year.

DONNIE WARD is at Johns Hopkins Hospital studying his theory on flexible bones.

BARBARA MELSON is now teaching shorthand at Richmond and is still having trouble with JOAN EDWARDS, her problem student.

DONNIE FITCHETT is head scientist at Duke University where he is working on a permanent cure for asthma.

E. T. DIZE is now manager of a health club in North Carolina whose slogan is, "grow two inches in four weeks."

JUDI WILLIAMS and BONNIE GODWIN have just opened the first drive-in beauty salon, located in Richmond.

PETE HOPKINS, who was terribly muscular, is now the gymnastics instructor at the University of Virginia.

DONNIE KILMON, who is happily married to BETSY WATSON, is now the new Game Warden for Accomack County.

BROOKS AYRES, whose artistic talents are beyond belief, is drawing for the "Peanuts" cartoon.

LINDA LILLISTON has a new strategy in the crab industry and is making her fortune in the Deep Creek Seafood Company.

CAROL MOORE, who was always a whiz at science, is now professor of nuclear science at U.C.L.A.

JOHNNY JOHNSON is now the top pro at the E.S.Y.C.C. and has added 54 holes to the golf course.

BOBBY AYRES has secured a good office job, and LINDA SHRIEVES is an operator in the C&P telephone office building.

NED PERRY and PHIL LEWIS have formed the "Ventures", and brought it to fame.

NANCY ADKINS, BRENDA ALLEN, and DIANE PARKS are now happily married.

CARSON DIGGS has become a mortician and goes by the motto: "We bury you deeper, cheaper."

CAROLYN HORSLEY just completed the world's longest biography of Shakespeare--9092 pages plus three foot-notes.

Remember BRUCE ADKINS? He is presently the CBS news reporter stationed in Dienbienphu.

ANN BELOTE is the head nurse of the fifth floor of the new Norfolk General Hospital, since it only has four floors.

ANN BALLARD has just added to her collection the famous Pimlico horse raceway in Maryland where she can be seen racing "My Friend Flicka."

BRIAN CORBIN, of Corbin's Amplifiers, has opened a new million-dollar factory in Columbia, Ohio.

BECKY CAMPBELL has opened another shopping center to add to the chain.

JACKIE WATKINSON is the star in the new hit film "The Tall American."

ROBERTA HAMPTON, who was well-known for her artistic talents, is under contract to Walt Disney in Hollywood.

MARILYN DAVIS is now secretary for the Trailway Bus Line and gets all of her tickets to and from Norfolk free.

JOHN RICHARDSON, who was always quiet and shy, has just been voted the Playboy of the Year by the New York Bunny Club.

TOMMY SHRIEVES, a quite successful farmer, has crossed a pig with a cow and invented that wonder animal called a POW.

LINDA GUY, whose nose is like an Indian's, is posing as Gerinomo at Sioux City in Wyoming.

MIKE MURPHY has just been signed up by the Washington Redskins and is leading them to their first championship in 30 years.

JOHN ED NOCK recently opened a new Mobil station directly across from "Robert's."

JOANNE CHAMBERS, who was always known for her height, has teamed up with the Harlem Globe-trotters. JUDY VAN KLEEF is known on the team for her shooting ability.

KITTY JAMES, who was forever missing her favorite program, "The Three Stooges", has replaced Curly and is seen every night on Channel 007.

LINDA BAGWELL is the first girl from the Eastern Shore to be crowned Miss Folly Creek Flounder.

BECKY ROBBINS is manager of the begetable soup department of Campbell's Soup.

SAMMIE MILES is busy working in New York on Wall Street as a C.P.A.

VERONICA WILLIAMS is now operating a refreshment center named "Daisy's."

SHARON PARKS is a likely candidate for Mayor of Onancock, and LINDA DAVIS is running for Town Cop.

I hope I will be able to write more often during the next ten years and give you more news of the Seniors of '66.

Our ALMA MATER

Oh, Alma Mater, school so fair,

No greater wisdom anywhere.

We hail the colors, blue and white,

Send forth thy beam of guiding light.

We ask of thee, oh bulwark bold,

These memories that we may hold.

Long stand the halls of 'Nancock High

Against the beauty of the sky.

God grant in future years that we May stronger, richer, fuller be.

More loyal as the years go by,

We hail to thee, Onancock High.

OFFICERS: Carol Moore, President; Jim Bowling, Vice-President; Linda Guy, Secretary; Kitty James, Treasurer.

For some members, the work comes fairly easy, but others have to really study. You may think we're studying here, but really we're planning how to raise money for the Convention in Roanoke.

Beta Club

OFFICERS: Eve Russell, President; Kaydell Edwards, Vice-President; Brenda Russell, Secretary; Jo Ann Chambers, Treasurer; Cathy Irvin, Chaplain.

During the year we worked to serve the community by giving Christmas presents to needy families. We also raised money to send our representatives to the Model General Assembly in April.

Our senior boys gave us the Thanksgiving pep rally which we all enjoyed. They were rewarded in the end with prizes well worth the effort to practice their cheers.

This year the cheerleaders had the help of some of our boys in making the beautiful Thanksgiving float, "Archways of Victory"

That night at half time all our work was displayed on the field after King John R. and Queen Linda were crowned. As the float went around the field, the songs of the cheerleaders were drowned out by the thunderous applaus from our stands.

The locker room was the home for our boys for many, many hours. They kept all their equipment in tip-top shape and in strict order.

NCOCK 0-NORTHAMPTON 32

THIS was Onancock's first game, and it was against a Group I I school. The Devils were not able to get themselves together, but learned much from the defeat. Unfortunatly we lost Donnie Ward because of a broken collar bone.

	TOUCH DOWNS	EXTRA POINTS	SAFETY	T
Ken Bradley	4	1	0	25
John R. Richardson	4	0	0	24

Askew	0	1	2	2

ONANCOCK 19-PARKSLEY 0

IN six inches of mud and constant rain the Devils, with the hard running of Ken Bradley and Larry Galloway, were able to handle the Eagles on their home field.

ONANCOCK 9-CHINCO 6

THE Devils scored with 2 minutes left in half when Larry y rambled sixty for the score e Murphy added the important extra point, which proved to be decisive. Doug Twyford led our stiff defense.

ONANCOCK 34-CENTRAL 34

THIS proved to be the game of the year. The Devils were losing 27-0 at the half. In the middle of the 4th quarter, the Bulldogs were leading 34-14 and the firewords began! With 5 minutes left, Mike Murphy and John R. teamed up for three touchdowns. Mike had his best night as he passed for 4 toudhdowns and kicked 4 extra points. The Devil defense was led by Doug, Ken, and Ben.

ONANCOCK 6-CENTRAL 0

ONANCOCK scored in the second quarter and was able to hold the lead because of a tremendous defensive ffort. The Devils overed 7 Bulldog ies.

NCOCK 0-PARKSLEY 34

THE Eagles came to ancock for a victory and they got it. The Devils were at their weakest physcally, and they were defeated.

ONANCOCK 7-ATLANTIC 0

AFTER the Cardinals scored in the first period, the Devils came marching back, with Ken Bradley going over from the 4 yd. line and Mike Murphy added the winning point----via placement. Again the Devil defense stood out led by middle linebacker, Ken Bradley and halfback, Bill Chandler who intercepted three passes.

ONANCOCK 14-ATLANTIC 14

WITH Bradley out, the Devils traveled to Atlantic where they managed to hold the Cardinals for a tie. Larry Galloway was injured in the second quarter and was out for the season. John R. returned a kickoff for a touchdown that gave us the tie. Mike Murphy added both of the xtra points.

ONANCOCK 6-CHINCO 0

IN a great defensive battle, the Devils made a fourth quarter touchdown with their big fullback, Ken Bradley, going over for the score. The defense was great, but the offense failed to move.

ONANCOCK 0-CAPE CHARLES 25

THE Devils met the Group I I I power, and went down in defeat. The defense was led by Ben Askew, Doug twyford, and Bill Chandler. The Devils also lost Mike Murphy because of ankle injury.

In recognition and appreciation of the guidance she has given us, we would like to thank our sponsor, Mrs. Yvonne Richardson, for her help. Although at times the job seemed more than too difficult, she worked with us to complete this 1966 TRIDENT.

Yes, the door of the annual room is closed for another year, but it seems almost impossible that our work is completed. On behalf of the staff, we hope that this book of memories will engrave the year of '65-'66 in your minds forever.

Dennis,

How much do you owe me in Algebra now? Don't forget the fun we have had this year. Good luck in your future at O.H.S., or elsewhere.

Love always,
Marilyn Jo Fincen

Dennis,

May future years bring us success at O.H.S. Please remember all the good times + me as a friend always.

Luv + Luc,
Ann Q.

Dennis,
Have fun. Ever heard the one about the "fat man that joined the army"? Too bad you weren't the best boy in school this year. Your friend,
Chuck G

Dennis,
Best of luck
to a real sweet guy.
Remember all the fun
we have had on the bus! Behave yourself
this summer.
Love,
Ann
